

A store that takes care of your home's interiors

Dimapur: Do you want the interiors of your home to stand out from the flock? Here is one place where you can check out such stuff for your home. 'Utopia', a store specialising in home furnishings, located at the first floor of HT Square on Circular Road, Dimapur, has recently opened. A whole range of exquisite items, from doormats to upholstery for rooms and bathrooms, are now at the disposal of those who want their homes to be comfortable while looking gorgeous.

Fine materials from the renowned textile mills of India, beautiful coverings for beds, cushion and pillow covers, feathery pillows, door mats, flowing materials for curtains and a whole range of interesting household upholstery are the added attractions of the store. And for those who are into designer stuff, fret not, for these are also available. Such stuff from bedroom slippers to towels can be reasonably had. Next time you are out shopping, check Utopia out. Do not worry about the price, for it was learned that the items are affordably priced. By the way, it is good stopover for prospective Mother's Day gift hunters.
